Committee. In this review, the Human Resources Director provides the CEO and the Executive Committee with a compensation history an	d the annual salaries of about 10 other nonprofit executives as example	s (some are higher and some are lower than his salary). The annual sal	ary is based on years of experience as an executive director/CEO, the size	and kind of agency that Washburn is, the compensation that we need to	provide to key staff that are generally licensed and often PhD's, and the	performance of the individual in the position. More general nonprofit sal	ary surveys are so broad that they do not adequately reflect the influence	of some of these factors. More specific salary surveys, such as the one don	e by the Minnesota Association of Community Mental Health Providers	, are mostly out state community mental health centers which reflect much l	ower salaries than executive leaders in metropolitan organizations. Many	of these have little or no fund raising component to them, and many of t	hem are largely public sector funding.

The CEO reviews the salary for the executive leadership team annually. The executive leadership team receives benefits at the same level as other employees of the agency.
