health care with a broad and deep spectrum of outpatient services across the continuum of care. The mental health care kids receive at Washburn Center is a safety-net. Community-based mental health care is for all kids and families who need us, period.

As an agency, Washburn is balancing community needs that are ever-evolving, financial sustainability and taking care of our staff so they develop and grow - sustaining this mission for this generation of children and those to come. In 2025, our therapists met with 4,013 children (5,397 duplicated) for 100,071 hours of therapy in family homes, schools, hospitals, and community centers. This represents 8.8% more children than 2024 - a clear reflection of the increased community need that is impacted by societal changes, community violence, and changing availability of resources.

In 2025, 27% of the children we served relied on more than one Washburn Center service. With our full continuum of care, Washburn Center serves children ages birth to 18, with an average of 47% between ages 6 to 11, who live in the Twin Cities and surrounding counties, and 63% of families served qualify for some form of financial support.

Children and their families are served in three office locations - Brooklyn Park, Edina and Minneapolis - as well as in-home, in more than 60 partner schools, in more than 30 hospitals and clinics, and in our communities. Washburn Center has more than 120 community-based therapists driving into neighborhoods, sitting in homes and meeting families where they are.

Comprehensive and evidence-based children's mental health services include assessment, evaluation, individual and family therapy, psychological evaluations, psychiatry, and care coordination. Services are designed to develop skills, navigate social, emotional and behavioral development as well as connect families with resources to help children reach their full potential.

In addition to comprehensive therapeutic services, Washburn Center's Training Institute is a national leader in training mental health professionals in trauma-informed, evidence-based practices. In-house and online training is offered to clinicians, interns, and allied professionals to ensure children receive the best quality care. Since its inception, the Training Institute has provided over 125,000 hours of training and consultation to 8,243 professionals nationally and internationally so that children can receive high quality mental health care. Additionally, the agency trains about 50 undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate students annually.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1a:

The Executive Committee is comprised of the current officers, the chairs of the standing committees, and all immediate Past Presidents who are still trustees. The Executive committee is authorized to act with the full authority of the board during intervals between meetings of the board.

to a presentation to the board. The Board of Trustees then reviews and discusses the Form 990 and approves the filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

It is the responsibility of every employee, supervisor, executive and others responsible for carrying out the organization's activities to immediately report suspected misconduct, dishonesty or conflict of interest verbally or in writing to the CEO, Chief Operating Officer, or the board of trustee's President. If the incident involves the CEO, it should be reported to the Chief Operating Officer or the board of trustee's President. If the incident involves the chief Operating Officer, it should be reported to the CEO or the board of trustee's President.

To facilitate reporting of suspected violations, especially in those Washburn Center for Children situations where the reporting individual wishes to remain anonymous, the organization has established an anonymous voicemail box, which will be monitored by the Chief Operating Officer and the board of trustee's President. Employees may also report suspected violations anonymously in writing to the CEO, Chief Operating Officer, or the board of trustee's President.

In appropriate circumstances, the CEO (or Chief Operating Officer, if the incident involves the CEO) will notify an officer of the Washburn board of trustees in the event of significant reported incidents on a timely basis.

With support from the CEO, the Chief Operating Officer has primary responsibility for all follow-up and investigations of each reported incident, except if the incident involves the Chief Operating Officer. The board of trustees will review any issues reported to them. A journal of reported incidents, follow-up actions taken and resolutions will be kept and reviewed annually by the CEO, Chief Operating Officer, and the Finance Committee Chair as part of the annual audit process.

During their employee orientation process, all employees will review and sign an acknowledgment that they have read and understand the code of ethics policy. An original signed copy will be kept in each personnel file. All supervisors and executives are required to sign the policy and reporting procedures annually.

The code of ethics policy will be reviewed by the Board Effectiveness Committee annually. Any changes will be approved by the board of trustees.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

The CEO's annual salary is set as a part of their review by the Executive Committee. In this review, the VP, Culture provides the CEO and the Executive Committee with a compensation history and the annual salaries of about 10 other nonprofit executives as examples (some are higher and some are lower than his salary). The annual salary is based on years of experience as an executive director/CEO, the size and kind of agency that Washburn is, the compensation that we need to provide to key staff that are generally licensed and often PhD's, and the performance of the individual in the position. More general nonprofit salary surveys are so broad that they do not adequately reflect the influence of some of these factors. More specific salary surveys, such as the one done by the Minnesota Association of Community Mental Health Providers, are mostly out state community mental health centers which reflect much lower salaries than executive leaders in metropolitan organizations. Many of these have little or no fund raising component to them, and many of them are largely public sector funding.

The CEO reviews the salary for the executive leadership team annually. The executive leadership team receives benefits at the same level as other employees of the agency.
